The Residences

These properties are being developed under a joint venture agreement between two publicly listed companies which provides buyers with an added layer of security. There is a choice between two and three bed units and all properties have two bathrooms as well as large terraces. The interiors are well thought-out and the two bedroom units have terrace access from the living room and master bedroom while many of the three bedrooms units have longer living rooms that stretch the length of the balcony giving panoramic green views.

The penthouses have balconies as well as roof terraces an...
