Property Description

This villa is set on a 350m² plot in Ciudad Quesada, with uninterrupted views of the sea. It is within easy reach to local amenities. You can take a short walk to bars and restaurants. A two minute drive will take you to the golf course or the high street. The location is perfect for being near enough to town for all the amenities and life, but also in a quiet location for just chilling by the pool. On entering the villa there is a glazed terrace with uninterrupted views of the sea. From the terrace, there is a large open plan living/dining area, accessed through a new security door, with log burner, and an American style kitchen. This area also benefits from ceiling fans and inverter unit for air conditioning or heat...
