Property Description

Remarkable and Unique

The Residence

Unique is the best way to describe Chalet Boulevard, a re-development that combines past, present and future to create a truly remarkable property.

The villa has the Mediterranean flavour that many seek when looking for their home in Spain. This is elevated by a contemporary interior and modernised facade with floor to ceiling glass doors uniting the interior and exterior.

Future essentials such as charging station for electric vehicles and hot water provided by a heat pump ensure there is no lack of future-proofing.
