Property Description

Charming, renovated, traditional, house in the historic centre of Javea. Located in a pedestrian street, which makes it ideal for living in the centre but surrounded by tranquillity.

The property is accessed from its picturesque pedestrian street which has been awarded for its beautiful decoration.

On the ground floor, next to the entrance, there is a small room which is currently used as a laundry room. This room could easily be opened to gain more space or used as you need it.

Next, we find a cosy sitting room with a wood-burning cooker and, just behind it, is the kitchen. From there, we access a bright and spacious room that could be used as a living room or dining room...
