Property Description

In the picturesque and highly sought-after village of Polop de la Marina, is located this enormous four-storey house with a garage and a large terrace boasting mountain views. The property is accessible from both sides, with entrances on two streets.

Upon entering the house from the top street, you'll encounter a spacious hall and a small room on the right that could be integrated into the living room if you so wish? The living-dining area features a fireplace and leads to a large individual kitchen with a pantry and an enclosed terrace. This level also houses a large bathroom with a bathtub...
