Property Description

This stunning property is located on a 478m² plot, with a total construction of 110m², completely renovated. The property features a well-thought-out layout, which includes a guest apartment on the lower level, making it ideal for those seeking independent accommodation for family or friends. On the lower level, we find a guest apartment, perfect for visitors, with a large entrance space currently used as storage, but with great potential to be converted into a living/dining room. To the left of the entrance is a fully equipped kitchen, while to the right is a room currently used as a lounge, with the option to be transformed into an additional bedroom...
